

Sample Event Calendar Listings

Several community organizations allow you to publish event calendar listings in their print newsletters, community list-servs, e-newsletters, or web site for free, or for a nominal charge. These calendars can be a very effective and inexpensive method of promotion for NVC workshops and events. This sheet contains several sample calendar listings for you to use or adapt to meet your promotion needs.

SAMPLE EVENT CALENDAR LISTINGS:

The event calendar listings below were submitted by the Oregon Network for Compassionate Communication. The specific publication/audience is listed.

Community Radio Online Event Calendar

Introduction to Nonviolent/Compassionate Communication

May 5, 2004

7:00pm-9:00pm

Presented by international peacemaker, author, educator and the founder of Nonviolent Communication, Dr. Marshall Rosenberg. Most of us have been educated from birth to compete, judge, demand, diagnose—to think and communicate in terms of what is “right” and “wrong.” Even when we are well meaning this can be disastrous to our personal and professional relationships. Come learn the “conscious communication” techniques of NVC and leave more aware of our shared connection, and the profound power of positive language. Join this stimulating, interactive, introductory workshop that will transform the quality of your personal and professional relationships. Requested Fee: $20-$5 sliding scale paid at the door, no registration required, no one turned away!

Contact:

503-450-9909

www.orncc.net

Location

Spiritual Awareness Community

157 NW Franklin Avenue

Bend, Oregon

Learning a Language of Compassion

May 6, 2004

9:00am-4:00pm

Presented by international peacemaker, author, educator and the founder of Nonviolent Communication, Dr. Marshall Rosenberg • An interactive, full-day, introductory workshop where you'll learn NVC basics to fulfill your intention to connect to yourself and others at the heart level. Most of us have been educated from birth to compete, judge, demand, diagnose—to think and communicate in terms of what is “right” and “wrong.” Even when we are well meaning this can be disastrous to our personal and professional relationships. Come learn the “conscious communication” techniques of NVC and leave more aware of our shared connection, and the profound power of positive language. Requested Fee: $100-$50 sliding scale, registration preferred • Prerequisites: NVC introduction is helpful but not required.

Contact
503-450-9909
www.orncc.net

Location
Aspen Hall
18920 Shevlin Park Road
Bend, Oregon

Peace Activist Online Event Calendar and printed event listings

Tuesday, May 4, 204 • Portland, Oregon • Introduction to Compassionate/Nonviolent Communication, presented by International Peacemaker, author, educator and the founder of Nonviolent Communication, Dr. Marshall Rosenberg • 7:00pm – 9:00pm • Wilson High School, 1151 SW Vermont • Requested Donation: $5 - $20 paid at the door, no registration required, no one turned away! Join this interactive, stimulating introductory workshops that teaches simple, yet powerfully transformative communication skills that will improve the quality of your personal and professional relationships. For more information about Dr. Rosenberg, NVC or ORNCC, visit www.orncc.net or call 503-450-9909.

Wednesday, May 5, 1004 • Salem, Oregon • Restorative Justice Community Conversation: Marshall Rosenberg with Mark Umbreit • Never before have these men had the opportunity to meet and work together at the same event. Join a day of dialogue on the principles and practices of restorative justice to heal the entire community. Hear the perspectives of global change agents, grassroots organizations, mediation professionals and government agencies • 9:30am - 3:30pm • Willamette University, Mary Stewart Rodgers Music Hall • Requested Donation: $75, registration preferred • For more information about Dr. Rosenberg, NVC, ORNCC, this event, or to register, visit www.orncc.net or call 503-450-9909.

For local neighborhood news:

Improve the Quality of Relationships

Join us Tuesday, April 16th, when International Peacemaker, Author, and Educator Marshall B. Rosenberg, Ph.D. comes to SE Portland to provide an Introduction to Compassionate (Nonviolent) Communication. For over 35 years, Marshall Rosenberg has traveled the world sharing the language of Nonviolent Communication, contributing to a shift in consciousness from violence, alienation and oppression to a new paradigm of interconnectedness. Come learn how to apply these simple but powerful principles of conscious communication to situations of personal, organizational and political discord worldwide.

Nonviolent Communication focuses our attention on compassion as our motivation, rather than fear, guilt, blame, or shame. It emphasizes improving the quality of our relationships as our goal and taking personal responsibility for our choices. It is effective even when the other person or group is not familiar with this process.

The event will be held from 7:00pm - 9:30pm at Cleveland High School Auditorium, 3400 SE 26th Ave. (Corner of 26th and Powell), and admission is on a donation basis ($5 - $15 suggested). For more information, see www.orncc.net, or (503) 450-9909.

For parenting publications

Every interaction we have with youth contains messages about who they are, who we are, and what life is like. Learn simple, and powerful tools for improving the quality of all personal and professional relationships, when International Peacemaker, Author and Educator Marshall Rosenberg, Ph.D. presents an Introduction to Compassionate (Nonviolent) Communication on Tuesday, April 16th, 2002 from 7:00pm - 9:30pm, Cleveland High School Auditorium, 3400 SE 26th Ave. (Corner of 26th and Powell). Requested donation $5 - $15. For more info contact: see www.orncc.net or (503) 450-9909.